

where inbound students come from

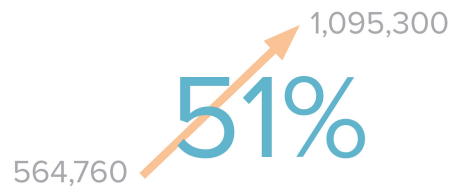

52%

of international students come from China & India

$44.7

billion to the U.S. economy through tuition, room and board, and other expenses, according to the U.S. Department of Commerce.

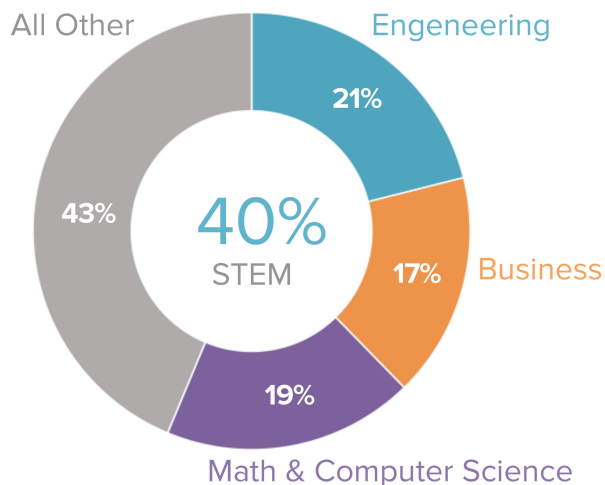

51%

enrolment increase since 2007
but has dropped 20% since 2016

450,000

jobs created or sustained according to NAFSA estimates

academic focus of study

1,095,300

total international student population for the 2018/2019 academic year